PHILADELPHIA MATTERS.

Persons visiting Philadelphia, either on busi ness or pleasure, or en route to the North East, or West, or having any kind of business to transact there, either in person or by letter, are confidently referred to the following cards as representing some of the principal establishments there, in their respective departments of business, and whose proprietors can be relied on for doing the handsoms thing, whether receiving orders in person or by mail. Any of them will promptly attend to all orders by mail or otherwise, and can be relied on as being governed strictly by fair market prices and the rules of honor. Those having business in that direction would do well to cut this department out and preserve it for reference.

Felton, Greek Professor in Harvard University. The noble Earl is well and favorably known in this country, having travelled here while he bore the title of Lord Morpeth, and his work will be read with great interest by all who have devoted any attention to the mighty events which are now taking place in the Eastern World. The period embraced in his journal is one of deep signifi-cance, being at the very commencement of hostilities, and the persons introduced have since played eminest parts in this terrible historical tragedy. Profe r Felton has added full and co-pious notes to the American edition, and the work is beautifully illustrated. It will hereafter be regarded as a valuable, historical record of this in
